

SOME RECENT PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCES ATTENDED

Frank J. Gadek

Biofuels and Biobased Product Workshop, United State Department of Agriculture [USDA], Eastern Regional Research Center [ERRC], August 31, 2001, Wyndmoor, PA

Ethanol Workshops for Rural America – Ethanol Production as a Way to Improve the Agricultural Economy While Benefiting the Environment and Energy Security, August 30, 2001, Holiday Inn, Grantville, PA, sponsored by U.S. Department of Energy, Office of Fuels Development, Northeast Regional Biomass Energy Program and Western Regional Biomass Energy Program, with workshops coordinated by EPAC [Ethanol Producers and Consumers].

Pennsylvania Wine Association Conference and Annual Meeting and Mini Trade Show, May 01-02, 2001, Penn State University, University Park, PA.

30TH Annual New York Wine Industry Workshop, April 05-06, 2001, Ramada Inn Geneva Lakefront, Geneva. NY.

Special 4 – 6 hour session on total phenols in red wines by Steve Price of ETS Laboratories, April 06, 2001, New York State Experimental Station, Geneva, NY, immediately after above workshop.

Grape Expectations, sponsored by Rutgers University of NJ, March 10, 2001, Forsgate Country Club, Jamesburg, NJ.

Wineries Unlimited 2001, March 03, 2001, Lancaster Host Hotel, Lancaster, PA.

Southeast Grape Industry Association of Pennsylvania [SEGA] Annual Meeting, November 29, 2000, Lancaster Farm and Home Center, Lancaster, PA.

Please note that numerous other conferences were attended on a regular basis in other years before the above more recent events. A detailed list can be provided upon request